The French Club members eagerly await the arrival of Marie-Joëlle Liénart, their exchange student, at Will Rogers Airport.

Ann Finney, TRAIL editor, reports to the sponsor, Mr. Robert Taylor, on the progress of the TRAIL.

Academics staff members, Pat Boyd, Nancy Spradlin, and Joyce Alexander, editor, consult Mrs. Dolly about the teachers' pages.

Trail

The 1965 TRAIL Staff presents your book. We hope it contains all the highpoints of this one year of your life.

Each Staff member has worked hard setting up pictures, drawing layouts, and writing copy to preserve your memories of this year. Our three photographers also spent many hours taking, developing, and printing pictures. New style graph paper and percentage wheels were some of the tools the Staff used in the TRAIL's production. Eight additional pages brought the total of the book to 184.

The TRAIL Staff especially appreciated the guidance of our sponsor Mr. Robert Taylor. A special thanks also goes to Jennifer Ragsdale for designing the TRAIL cover.

"And away we go!" Pam Oviatt, Business Manager, Susan Merres, Advertising Assistant, and Jan Hecron, Business Manager, bomb out on another advertising expedition.

Will the real TRAIL photographer please stand up? Our illustrious photographers, Jim Shauberger, Jon Rennie and Steve Tackwell, display their modern equipment.

"Hey, Where did he go?" Our vivacious Honors staff, Kathy Hayes, and Kathy Flood, editor, seem to be looking for someone in the lightwell.

"Yes, Mr. Shaw . . . the senior sponsors' pictures will have to be retaken." Susan Hollon and Cathy Holman, editor, discuss the Senior Class pages with Mr. Buford Shaw, senior sponsor.

"They can't make me laugh." Vaughn Clark defies Susan Easterling, Marilyn Drace, and Tayisha Taylor, editor, as they draw up the Sports section.

"Boy, what drudgery!" Charlene Southard, School Life editor, and Jackie Webster pause to smile as they index their pages.

Student Council President, Lynn Reed, presides over an assembly.

Student Council officers for 1964-65 are installed by past President Larry Haral. The officers are: Ronna Riddle, Secretary; Larry Farmer, Treasurer; Mrs. Kaye Teall, Sponsor; Mary Ann Reed, Vice-President; and Lynn Reed, President.

Student Council Has Busy Year

The 1964-65 Student Council was under the reliable sponsorship of Mrs. Kaye Teall and the presidency of Lynn Reed. Working hard to help the school, the council helped with enrollment, put out the Student Directories, welcomed new students, and gave a course in parliamentary procedure.

Many elections took place in which the Student Council participated. The organization also held a door decorating contest at school and promoted the "Toys for Tots" campaign at Christmas. Activities the council held were Now-or-Never Week, an Intramural Volleyball Tournament, the Howdy Hop, the Christmas Dance, the Now-or-Never-Valentines Dance, two Hootenannies, and the dance following the All-School Queen Coronation. The council also planned the coronation.

At the annual Student Council banquet in May, the officers for the coming year were announced. The officers and members worked hard and had a prosperous year at NHS.

Wins High Honors

The Norman High School Chorus Department, under the direction of Mrs. Lucille White, consists of the Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs, the Mixed Chorus, the Girls' Trio, the Boys' and Girls' Quartets, and the Sophomore Triple Trio.

At the beginning of the year, the Department held their annual candy sale to buy blazers for the Boys' Glee Club. Throughout the year, many of the groups sang for various civic clubs in Norman. In November, many chorus members participated in the all-school musical, My Fair Lady, and in the joint concert with West and Central Junior High Schools. The Choral groups participated in the Stillwater All-State Choral Festival and in the Christmas Concert during December. High honors were won when many members attended District Contest at Oklahoma City University and State Contest at Oklahoma University. At the close of the school year, the Department gave their Spring Concert and sang at Graduation and at Baccalaureate.

"Just you wait 'cary 'ggins," Mrs. Lucille White, musical director for the NHS Chorus, rehearses a song from My Fair Lady with her daughter, Rosemary.

Members of Boys' Quartet were Lynn Dixon, James McGee, John Hart, and Marvin Gifford.

Students Learn From Jo

The French Club banquet was the greatest with Marie-Joëlle Liénart as the guest speaker.

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Virginia Bell, the major project of the French Club this year was the support of Marie-Joëlle Liénart, Norman High's first exchange student. Since arriving early in September, Jo (as the students call her) has been the guest of various French Club members. She spent time in the homes of Mary Male, Sherri Sue Sain, Mary Jane Gatchel, Carolyn Long, and Cheri Bryant. Although Jo leaves in July, her stay at Norman High School will long be remembered by all. One of the first programs was a fall banquet at which Jo spoke on the difference of American and French school life.

The French Club had three successful fund raising projects, a bottle drive and a bake sale and a candy sale planned in the spring. During the Christmas holidays, they had a caroling party (all songs in French, of course).

In the middle of May was an end-of-the-year picnic—"Pique Niqué à Paris"—which included a special program of French folksongs.

Spanish Club Studies Other Lands

Officers were: Top row: Bill Bavinger, President; Kay Snodgrass, Program Chairman; and Duane Draper, Vice President. Bottom row: Joy Smothermon, Treasurer, and Carol Hickman, Secretary.

The Norman High School Spanish Club for the 1964-1965 school year had the theme of learning about customs of Spanish-speaking lands. The club was sponsored by Mr. Robert Sumter.

The Spanish Club began the year by electing officers. They were Bill Bavinger, President; Duane Draper, Vice-President; Carol Ann Hickman, Secretary; Joy Smothermon, Treasurer; and Kay Snodgrass, Program Chairman. Adrienne Davis was elected Spanish-American Fiesta Representative. The Spanish-American Fiesta, which she attended in April at Oklahoma University, is a yearly meeting of Spanish Club representatives from high schools throughout Oklahoma. The state Spanish Club queen is elected at the Fiesta.

At one meeting president Bill Bavinger showed slides of his Mexican trip to the group. At another meeting Dr. Artman, a professor of Spanish at Oklahoma University, spoke to the club about opportunities for language careers.

The stage crew was composed of Paul Akmal, Tom Love, Mike Eubanks, Jennifer Ragdale, and Mary Martha Miles.

Speech Students

The Speech Department at Norman High has been especially active and outstanding this year. In November it collaborated with the Music Department to present the musical, My Fair Lady, with Duane Draper playing Professor Higgins and Rosemary White as Eliza Doolittle. In March, the one-act play, "Hans Over Thy Head," was given at an assembly. This play won a superior rating at the Edmond Speech Tournament. The Speech II play, Our Hearts Were Young and Gay, was presented in April, with Mary Jane Gatchel as Cornelia and Stephanie Warren playing Emily.

Norman High School was very fortunate to have nine students as members of the National Forensic League. To qualify for the National Forensic League, a student must get a total of twenty-five points at speech contests in the fields of debating, extemporaneous speaking, or dramatic, humorous, or poetry interpretation.

Every year in May, the Mabel Awards are presented by the Speech teacher, Mrs. Mabel Ritzman. Since they were first given in 1963, they have become a high mark of honor at Norman High. Last year the Mabel Awards went to Paula Powers, for best supporting actress, and to Gan Matthews, for best actor.

Qualifiers for the District Speech Contest were: Seated: Lisa Cooper, Joyce Goldfield, and Mary Martha Miles. Standing: Ronnie Burdick, Duane Draper, Diane Turner, Paul Akmal, Mary Jane Gatchel, Mike Elder, Stephanie Warren, and Bob Oliphant.

Mu Alpha Theta Organized

Under the leadership of Mrs. Patricia McClure, Mr. Leon Rauch, and Mr. Jerry Glasgow, what was formerly the Math Club re-organized into a chapter of the Mu Alpha Theta, a national organization sponsored by the Mathematics Association of America.

Officers for the year 1964-1965 were: Rick Olney, President; Bill Weinmar, Vice-President; Barbara Wender, Secretary-Treasurer; James Elder, Reporter; and Gene Bray, Committee Coordinator.

The purpose of the Club is to further mathematics scholarship and the understanding and enjoyment of mathematics. Being an honor club, its members must have completed at least four semesters of high school mathematics and must be currently enrolled in another. Members must also have had a "B" average for all high school work.

During the past year the club has studied several subjects, including convergent and divergent sequences, number curiosities, logic, and axiomatic algebra.

Marsha Whitten laughingly gives up on the problem. Larry Woods and David Moses are trying to explain to her.

FHA Carries Out High Goals

The Future Homemakers began their 1964-1965 year with installation of officers. The sponsors were Miss Hope Wood and Mrs. W. W. Hiss.

The central goals for the year were, "Youth Can Do," "Getting Acquainted with People of Other Lands," and "Remembering the Aged." Each holiday the members made special items for the people living in nearby rest homes, thereby bringing into focus the ideals of the club.

At one of the first meetings, Mrs. Estelle

Power, owner and manager of Power's Young Fashions, discussed consumer buying and gave a style show of winter fashions. The models were members of FHA.

Money-making projects for the year were selling cookbooks, serving at banquets, selling candy, and a bake sale.

Officers were Annette Smith, President; Jane Ann Fritch, Vice President; Deanna Blumett, Secretary; Dianne McDaniel, Treasurer; and Rhea Russell, Historian.

hoff, Linda Brewster, Adrienne Davis, Adela Lopez, Pat Smith, Sherri Meiser, Gail Barrett, Quintana Lecklider, Sandra Tullius, Donna Neff, and Carol Miller. Top row: Carolyn Grant, Lora Holzbauer, Charlene Southard, Katherine Dally, Lynda Parnan, Judy Gritson, Louise McDonald, Linda Lowry, Johnnie Foster, Susanne Saucier, Mary Wade, and Nancy Townsley.

Office Club

Under the leadership of Mrs. Aggie McDade, the Office Club was formed at Norman High School this year. The club's first officers were: Jan Bryan, President; Donna Pinkerton, Vice President; Linda Franklin, Secretary; Billie Rogers, Treasurer; and Laura O'Connell, Public Relations Chairman.

The purpose of the Office Club is to promote better relationships between business leaders and students interested in business and civic responsibility. The club also works to promote public welfare. Members are required to take at least one office or business course at Norman High School.

The 1965 Art Club and art classes, both under the direction of Mrs. Shirley Calkins, presented Norman High with new and refreshing ideas.

The "Picture of the Week" gave the art students a chance to display their best paintings and pieces of sculpture. Art class students entered the Young Talents Exhibit at the University of Oklahoma and contests at Edmond.

"Paint Daubers," the art club, helped to make props and scenery for "My Fair Lady," and made decorations for the convalescence home at Easter. Their assembly proved a great success. In it the Paint Daubers portrayed living works of art, accompanied by a stirring narrative by Cynthia Calkins.

Mr. Harry Haines, band director, concentrates on achieving exact sound.

Under the direction of Mr. Harry Haines, the Norman High School Band continued its past record of excellent performances that began in 1935 with W. E. Blakely as the first director. The traditional orange coats with black slacks were worn. By playing and performing at games throughout the year, the band led Norman High in spirit and achievement. The band excelled at District Contest, State Contest, Tri-State Music Festival, and Band Clinic. An annual Winter Concert was given during December. Twenty-eight band members were honored to play in All-State Band and All-State Orchestra which are composed of the best high school musicians in Oklahoma.

Band members displayed an active concern for the welfare of school property.

True Tiger spirit is evident as the NHS Marching Band leads a victory march.

"N" Club Participates

The "N" Club of Norman High School is open to all lettermen interested in joining. Its members attend the sports events of Norman High School and help promote school spirit. The lettermen sold Tiger car decals at the first of the year, and also sold basketball programs at the home games. The "N" Club was sponsored by Coach Wray Littlejohn and Coach Max Marquardt.

In November, the club held the election of the All-Sports Queen. Miss Laura O'Connell

The spirit of the student body reached its highest peak this year led by our hard-working cheerleaders. Jane Meyer, Cindy Bowlby, Jan Hopkins, Sherry Reece, Kathy McCray, and Joyce Anderson spent many hours in summer and after-school practice sessions to provide the best possible cheers and to better promote school spirit for our Tiger teams. The excellent ratings they received at Summer Clinic were one third place, two second places, and two first places, including a first at state finals. The alternates, Laura Hill and Adrienne Davis, also attended Summer Clinic and received four first places and one honorable mention for their superior cheerleading. Our Gingersnap Tiger, Linda Sanders, helped promote spirit at the football and basketball games, and at the wrestling matches. Indeed, the Gingersnaps and the whole student body have greatly appreciated the tremendous effort, spirit, and devotion the cheerleaders have shown throughout the year.

Senior Gingersnaps

"Go Tigers! Destroy the Demon!" Billie Rogers and Marilyn Reynolds yell with enthusiasm at the Norman-Duncan football game.

Since the Gingersnaps was first organized forty years ago, it has grown to nearly five hundred members. Its purpose is to promote spirit and enthusiasm at all Tiger home games. The Pep Club has also provided colorful banners, stirring pep rallies, and has taken buses to out-of-town games to encourage our traveling squads.

The coronation for the All-Sports Queen was handled by the Gingersnaps under the leadership of its Vice-President. In the spring a picnic and dance were held to honor the letter-

FTA officers, Marilyn Reynolds, Treasurer; Kathy Rankin, Vice-President; Lynn Daugherty, Secretary; Pam Oviatt, President; and Jennifer Ragdale, Historian, look over the list of FTA activities.

Learning and gaining from experience, the fifty-one Future Teacher members benefited from industrious work in school and community activities. Led by Pam Oviatt, President, and Mrs. Theodore Gatchel and Mrs. Bill McClure, Co-Sponsors, FTA fulfilled an active year.

During the fall the club met in a Get-Acquainted party, organized business, had the annual installation of officers and induction of new members, and later attended the fall conference at Bethany High School. They also handed out pamphlets for the teachers' state questions, and heard two speakers, Miss Helen Olander and Mrs. R. N. Bartholomew.

In the spring, members had a small coke party to introduce the new sponsor, Mrs. Pat McClure, held election of new officers, and they saw a film. Later they attended the State Conference in Stillwater, Oklahoma, and heard talks concerning the profits of this convention.

To complete an active program, the Future Teachers had a picnic at the end of the year.

Planning For The Future

Medical Careers Club's bimonthly meetings were of great value to all members. Speakers from every phase of medical work were guests at the meetings and told of their careers in medicine. A surgeon, a nurse, a social worker, and a veterinarian spoke to the group.

In October, the group attended a State Rally which was held at the Oklahoma University Medical Center. A tour of some Oklahoma City hospitals was taken in the spring. For projects, the Medical Careers Club made stuffed animals for the children at Central State Hospital, helped with the Heart Fund drive, and took a first aid course. The club was sponsored by Mrs. Harper Orth and Mrs. T. A. Ragan.

During the thirtieth year since its beginning, one hundred thirty Norman FFA Chapter members were trained under the leadership of the advisors, Mr. Doyle Edge and Mr. Edward Kitchens. The vocational agriculture department participated in many projects, such as feeding steers and swine. They also took part in local, county, and state fairs. In farm mechanics, skills taught were in the areas of welding, and cold metal work, which includes sheet metal and plumbing. Students were required to take sixteen weeks of training in welding and complete twenty welding assignments. They were then permitted to make wrought iron furniture and several types of equipment for livestock. In addition, they were taught to repair farm equipment. Other skills learned were carpentry, electrification, small engine repair, masonry work, and engineering.
