

Steve Edwards in his cap and gown represents the graduating class of NHS.

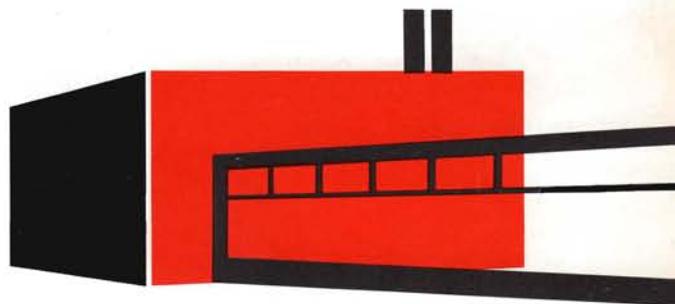

Juniors Laura Caudill, Sharon Council, Jo Ann Roberts and Tiana Tackwell scramble for the ball with the KOMA High-Hoopers.

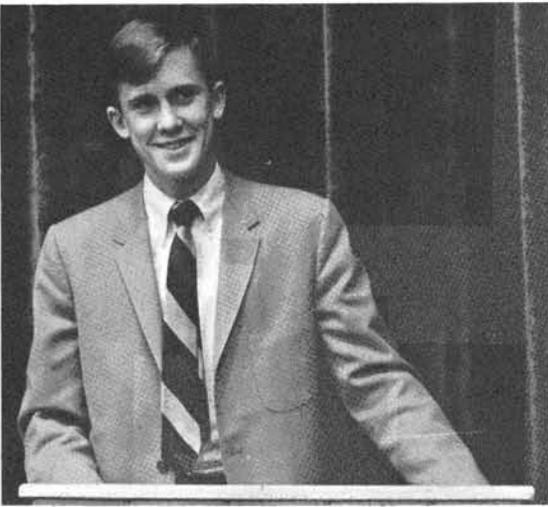

Sophomores give their opinions about seniors in the All-School Variety Show.

A senior act from the variety show rehearses for opening night.

CLASSES

Class President, Mike Elder, led the graduating class of '66.

Senior class sponsors were Mr. Rauch, Mr. Littlejohn, Mrs. Bailey, Mr. Edge, Mrs. Hartsock, Mrs. V. Smith, Mrs. Worley, and Miss Wood.

Seniors End Eventful Year

1966—The year we had been waiting for. From the largest enrollment to the initiation of a new annual All-School Talent Show, we seniors excelled in all phases of school life. President Mike Elder, Vice-President Carol Ann Hickman, and Secretary-Treasurer Deven Mummery set an example for the entire class to follow. Our Sponsors were welcome help in preparation for the Talent Show, our Senior Gift, and all other senior activities. This was the year of fulfillments and accomplishments. We were seniors; the floating moments of the prom belonged to us alone; the tearful excitement of graduation found a place in each of our hearts. We were seniors in '66—that A-Go-Go year.

Serving as Vice-President of the senior class, Carol Ann Hickman was one of the school's favorite personalities.

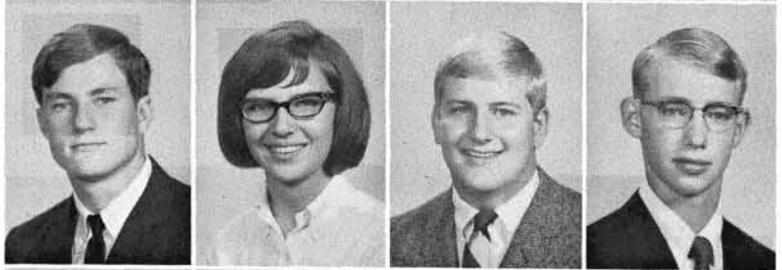

Deven Mummery, Secretary-Treasurer, gave her helpful assistance to senior projects throughout the year.
